

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Payments: All Brass Ring board, training and maintenance fees are due in advance. Invoices are Net 10 and include a due date by the 5th of each month. Though all monthly invoices are due on the first of each month, if The Brass Ring receives your payment on or before the 5th of the month, clients with horses in full training for the entire month will earn a $50 discount/horse. All payments received on the 10th of the month or later will be charged a $25 late fee plus interest at 1.5% for each month the payment is late. The postmark on your payment envelope serves as the proof of date payment was mailed. We assess late fees, interest and give discounts based on the date we RECEIVE payment and your funds are available for use. No exceptions. If you do not receive your invoice by 10th of the month, it is your responsibility to call The Brass Ring so that we can give you the amount due for timely payment.

Forms of Payment: The Brass Ring accepts cash, checks, money orders, cashier's checks, Visa, Mastercard and AMEX cards as payment. Please note that there is an office for processing cards. NSF: Returned check fee:$30.00

Show Costs: Costs of Patronship, tack rooms and other group of show charges will be added together, averaged and the costs distributed evenly among all horses for each show. Show fees and entries are billed in advance and must be paid in full before show departure or your horse(s) will not be taken to the show. Clients should provide their own show equipment clearly marked with the owner or farm name. The Brass Ring is not responsible for loss, theft or damage to equipment, show clothes or other items of a personal nature.

Regional Show with Qualifying Pre-show: Horses will not be charged two show fees. Rather, the clients will be charged one and a half (1½) of show fee if their horses are entered and shown in both shows.

Additional Monthly Fees/Charges: All veterinary, health care, vet follow-up visits, emergencies, laundry, cleaning and repair of blankets and pads, supplements, medications and their scheduling and dissemination as well as other like services are invoiced as separate charges from board and training. These services may be subject to "cost plus a percentage" when billed to cover additional overhead and staffing costs.

Delinquent Accounts: Clients over thirty days delinquent in paying accounts in full may have their horse(s) withdrawn from shows until payment is made, and may, at the sole discretion of The Brass Ring, be withdrawn from monthly training and put on maintenance board until the account is remedied.

After Hours Arrivals/Departures: After hours are considered from 6 p. m. until 8 a.m., and Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays. After hours arrivals and departures of horses will be assessed a $ 75 charge.

Release of Horses: All of your account charges must be paid in full before your horse(s) will be released from the Brass Ring or any show. The Brass Ring requires a 30-day written notice prior to the release of your horse. All fees must be paid in advance enough for your check to clear or payment made by credit card.

Advertising Information: We will provide you advertising information for planning purposes. Some advertising, such as Youth Nationals, will be automatically billed to clients to allow for inclusion in show programs.

The Brass Ring Appreciates Having You as Our Client!

I have been advised of and provided a copy of The Brass Ring's Fee Schedule and Terms and Conditions. I agree to comply with these documents while my horse(s) is in the care of The Brass Ring. Please keep a copy of these documents for yourself and return a signed and dated copy to The Brass Ring. Thank you very much!

Printed _____ Client Name _____ Client _____

Signature _____ Date _____